

Dr Lyn Wilson, BSc, MA, PhD, FSA Scot

Scottish Ten Project Manager, Historic Scotland

Project Manager, Centre for Digital Documentation & Visualisation

Email : lyn.wilson@scotland.gsi.gov.uk

Lyn is the manager of the digital documentation unit within Historic Scotland; Scotland's government body for heritage preservation. This includes our international Scottish Ten project, which has seen the team 3D laser scan such diverse sites as Mount Rushmore, USA and Rani ki Vav, India (www.scottishten.org). Lyn is also project manager at the Centre for Digital Documentation and Visualisation LLP, a joint venture between Historic Scotland and Glasgow School of Art.

She is a heritage scientist by training and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Scotland. Her primary areas of interest lie in the scientific application of 3D reality capture within the historic environment and emerging technologies in heritage science. Lyn has managed digital survey projects around the globe and is an enthusiastic advocate of digital preservation of the world's heritage.
